

Compensation of Academic Loss Programme

Students participated in various sports and games at regional and national level. To compensate the academic loss, teachers took extra classes in zero periods. Notes and photo copies were shared to complete the syllabus effectively for the affected learners. Short notes and test booklets were given. Regular class test and assessment were done with regular intervals.